1. Teaching Positions Available

Oxbridge Summers is recruiting tutors (and an Academic Director) for a summer program for female highschool students in Saudi Arabia in August (July 28th - August 19th). We are seeking female candidates for these roles for reasons of cultural norms.

We are committed to recruiting either recent PhD holders or Doctoral candidates from Oxford University from the following disciplines:

Life and physical sciences

Engineering

IT & Computer science

Salary is highly competitive. Fluency in English is assumed.

If you are interested please send your CV, and any queries you may have, to this email address: recruitment@alphaeducation.com.

2. Participants needed for psycholinguistics experiment

We are currently recruiting participants for a psycholinguistics experiment that will take place in the Language & Brain Laboratory of the University of Oxford. The experiment will last between 45 to 60 minutes and will involve reading English sentences and answering questions about the sentences on a computer screen. During the experiment, your eye movements while reading will be recorded by means of non-invasive eye tracking. You will receive £8/hour for your time. The only requirement is that you are a native speaker of English with normal or corrected-to-normal vision.

If you are interested or have any questions, please email yhuen.khor@lingphil.ox.ac.uk

3. Room to let

We are a lovely shared 5-bedroom house with mixed genders/nationalities/sense of political correctness. We are looking for new housemates, preferably a graduate students like us. Ideally, you'd be:

Social and easy going

Clean (or ze German in the house will get you)

With a sense of humour above German average.

We are well-placed near Cowley Road (Magdalen Road), with cafes and pubs within pyjama distance. Homely kitchen, cosy living room, 2 bathrooms, dishwasher, washing machine. Our garden is ideal for summer barbecues. We have two rooms:
