1. Final BCG on-campus event in Trinity Term 2016 – "Introduction to consulting and BCG"

Heard about consulting, and want to learn more about it? Interested in working for a fast-growing company in a dynamic, team-oriented environment? Looking to be challenged whilst receiving strong developmental support?

If you want to know the answers to these questions and more, join BCG for our final on-campus event of Trinity Term 2016. We will talk about what consultancy entails as a career, share with you our experiences of working at BCG, and discuss what the job involves on a day-to-day basis. We will also briefly cover the application process and deadlines, and end with Q&A / networking.

Location: Saskatchewan Lecture Theatre, Exeter College

Date and time: June 9th, 6:30pm

Event duration: about 1 hour, with drinks and nibbles at the end

The event is open to everyone; absolutely no business experience required to attend!

2. Test your memory with a short online game, and help Student Minds in the process!

Researchers at the Department of Experimental Psychology are conducting a study investigating the memory capacity of Oxford students. Previous participants have had lots of fun hunting for treasure in our online game, and it will allow you to compare your working memory to other Oxford students. For every completed session (around 20 minutes) we will donate £1 to Student Minds, the UK's leading student mental health charity. Visit eelkespaak.nl/wmgame/ to play! Email Daniel.Morris@new.ox.ac.uk if you have any questions

3. Running in Oxford survey

The survey should take less than 5 minutes of anyone's time, and is less than 10 questions long, but each additional respondent is very useful to us. Please note that non-runners are just as useful as respondents as active runners.

We would like to thank you in advance for your help in this project.

4. IMAGINE IF! accelerator programme

The IMAGINE IF! accelerator programme is organised by the Innovation Forum to identify and accelerate disruptive ideas in the fields of biotech, health and life sciences, material sciences, medtech and clean tech. The accelerator will provide invaluable opportunities to early stage science-based ventures including mentorship, the potential to secure non-diluted capital (>£30K), free laboratory space and advice from leading professional service companies. For more information about the accelerator, visit: www.inno-forum.org/accelerator/
